ORDERS TO ENCOURAGE FAMILY BONDING

SINGAPORE, APRIL 2020 – As an extension of its We Clean. We Care. We Welcome initiative, Millennium Hotels and Resorts (MHR) is offering exciting food and beverage takeaway and delivery options across selected hotels in Singapore. Each order will also include a complimentary care package filled with a selection of games from chess sets to chaptah (a traditional Asian game that requires players to use their feet to keep a weighted shuttlecock in the air) to encourage families to take a break from their digital devices and spend quality time with each other.

“When we launched our ‘We Clean. We Care. We Welcome’ initiative, we wanted to assure all our guests and employees that their health and safety remains our top priority,” said Group CEO, Clarence Tan. “Our newly launched food takeaway service and care packages are designed with the COVID-19 circuit breaker measures in mind. This way, families know that they can safely take a break, and meaningfully engage with their loved ones over a meal or with some of the games we have prepared.”

Complimentary with every order, MHR’s care package consists of a traditional and evergreen game to encourage diners to take advantage of this time to reconnect with their family members offline. The games include the nostalgic feather shuttlecock game Chaptah, Five Stones, Pick-Up Sticks and classic board games such as Snakes & Ladders and Chess. All can be played safely within the comforts of home and are suitable for participants of all ages.

For an authentic MHR takeaway dining experience, indulge in popular dishes from selected MHR F&B outlets in Singapore. Takeaway and delivery options are available from a specially curated menu featuring local favourites, healthy bento sets and hearty western fare. All diners will enjoy up to 20% off on orders placed via phone, email or direct online booking on the Group’s enhanced website (www.millenniumhotels.com). New and existing members of MHR’s award-winning loyalty programme, My Millennium, will also enjoy an additional five percent off all orders.
