

THINGS TO DO AND SEE IN NEW PLYMOUTH

Black sand surf beaches, parks and gardens, art galleries and hip cafes have gained New Plymouth a worldwide reputation. Framing the city, Mt Taranaki draws hikers to its scenic trails.

From New Plymouth's award winning walkway, fabulous Pukekura Park, renowned Govett-Brewster Art Gallery (home of the Len Lye Centre), the striking landmark Puke Ariki Museum to the ever changing views of Mt Taranaki, you will remember your visit with pleasure.

Out of the city centre the Pukeiti Rhododendron Gardens, Sugar Loaf Island and Marine Park and the local beaches make it easy to get back to nature.

The friendly Millennium staff will provide helpful advice on the local attractions and events.
